Rules and Regulations

1) Contestant must submit the following documents in order to compete in the contest. All documents must be signed by parent/guardian and contestant and be properly completed in order to be eligible for the contest.

- a. Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Princess Contestant application form.
- b. Four 4 x 6 colored pictures of yourself (a close up in western attire)

- c. A write up about yourself for the paper.
- d. Agreement to Abide by Rules and Regulations and Waiver of Liability.
- e. Expectation Agreement
- f. A $100 non-refundable Sponsor donation.

- 2) Contestants are required to be on time and adhere to the schedule of the contest. Tardiness will be deducted from judge's points
- 3) Upon arrival to the location of the contest, contestants will be responsible to and under the jurisdiction of the Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Committee.
- 4) Contestant must have a suitable horse for the rodeo and other related events, but it need not be the horse used in the contest.
- 5) Contestant shall be the only person preparing their horse on the day of the contest. Exceptions will only be made for persons with physical limitations, they may also have help saddling if needed. This includes grooming, saddling, bridling, and warming-up their horse. This must be done on site and any coaching from the sidelines during these tasks are grounds for disqualification!
- 6) Parents, friends, and relatives are welcome to attend any or all activities designated and must agree to abide by all rules and regulations. Please note all spectators attending the horsemanship must sign a waiver.
- 7) Only members of the Evanston Cowboy Days Committee, Contestants and Judges are permitted in the arena area during competition.
- 8) If any problems occur, i.e., a tack failure or a thrown shoe from the horse, the contestant should stop their pattern immediately and go directly to the judges in order to solve the problem. If you experience any problems and complete your pattern in the arena, the matter will not be considered.
- 9) Final decision will be that of the judges; including any matter while the contestant is competing.
- 10) Contestants must conduct themselves in a proper, lady-like manner, portray high moral standards and demonstrate good sportsmanship or they may be disqualified.
- 11) All contestants are required to dress in full western attire.
- 12) All contestants are not permitted at any time during the contest or as reigning queen to smoke, drink, or use foul language.
- 13) Any problems that arise should be directed to the Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Queen Committee immediately.
- 14) The perpetual serape is the permanent property of the Evanston Cowboy Days Committee and the Princess is responsible to keep it in good shape. If not when her reign is over she must pay for new one. When the year is over she will have the serape dry cleaned and returned.
- 15) After the coronation, each contestant, including the new Princess is expected to remain at the event location and demonstrate good behavior and sportsmanship. It is appropriate for contestants as well as the new Princess to show their appreciation for the opportunity to compete, by thanking judges, sponsors, Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Committee members and other Association officials, who may be present, for their efforts to support and organize the event.
- 16) Any misconduct may be grounds for contestants to be disqualified from this contest or ineligible for future contests.
- 17) Any violations of these Rules and Regulations may disqualify a contestant from participation
- 18) A contestant or any individual with the intent to influence or harass may not approach a judge or the auditor before or after any event. Action of this type will be reported to the Evanston Cowboy Days Executive Board and Queen Coordinator and disqualification of that contestant could result and all prizes will be seized.

19) Evanston Cowboy Days expects each Contestant to display the highest degree of sportsmanship during the Pageant and particularly following the Coronation Ceremony. Poor sportsman-like conduct will not be tolerated and could result in the contestant being disqualified and may affect future eligibility in the Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Queen pageant.

20) The Evanston Cowboy Days Princess can only hold her title for one year, and cannot compete for a second title during her reign.

21) Any horses that are deemed dangerous by Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Committee or the horsemanship judges will not be allowed to compete. Dangerous is defined as bucking, rearing, running off, or otherwise out of control. This is during contest and anytime during the year.

22) Keep in mind that you will be watched at ALL times. Judges are looking for sportsmanship, friendliness and good behavior.

23) The Queen director/committee and title sponsor reserve the right to cancel or revise the rules and/or contest depending on the number of contestants.

24) The judges are carefully selected and have been instructed to seek contestants exemplifying sincerity, integrity, attractiveness inside and out, intelligence, high moral standards, maturity, public speaking skills, horsemanship ability, and knowledge of rodeo, horse science, and current events.

25) The judges reserve the right not to award a title to any or all participants who they feel are not deserving or qualified of being awarded said title.

26) As in all competition, there can only be one winner, but each of you are winners and enriched individuals for participating. Please remember to practice good sportsmanship as this should be a learning experience where you will gain skills that will benefit you for the rest of your life. It is said that it takes a greater person to be a gracious loser than to be a winner. Each contestant can do a lot to promote the great sport of rodeo and create further interest in the pageant regardless of their placing.

NOTE:

These rules and regulations are designed for your safety and to keep the contest running properly and in a professional manner. If any grievances arise, either during or after the Princess contest, the matter should be brought to the attention of the Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Coordinator.

JUDGES DECISIONS ARE FINAL

MISS EVASTON COWBOY DAYS PRINCESS CONTEST JUDGING CATEGORIES

MODELING:

1. Attractiveness
2. Grooming, this should include neatness, cleanliness, fingernails, hair, hat, boots, and other western apparel.
3. Posture: How the contestant carries herself is very important, the judges will be looking for contestants to carry themselves straight and tall and exude self-confidence and poise.
4. Poise and ladylike behavior in every situation. Judges will be looking for contestants to handle each situation that they are involved in with grace and style.
5. Western fashion sense: contestants should pick outfits that reflect fashionable and tasteful western clothing. Judges will pay particular attention to contestant's ability to use colors to enhance her natural coloring and enhance appearance and eye appeal.
6. Proper fit of clothing: above all contestants should pay attention to the fit of her outfit. Outfits should be figure flattering and altered to fit her personality. In addition, contestants should be properly fitted for a hat so that it will flatter the face
7. Personality

PERSONALITY and APPEARANCE (on going throughout competition)

1. Intelligence and good common sense.
2. Conversational ability in varied circumstances, with an emphasis on grammar and enunciation.
3. A good sense of humor.
4. Self-confidence, high moral standards, sincerity, and integrity.
5. Genuine interest in other people and consideration of others.
6. Self-Projection – the ability to project one's personality, whether it is from the horseback or appearing on stage before a crowd.
7. A happy outlook on life.
8. Promptness in keeping the pageant schedule.
9. Positive and pleasant attitude
10. Maturity.
11. The ability to clearly express ones educational backgrounds and career goals.

INTERVIEW

The judges will interview each contestant privately. Questions asked will test the contestant's knowledge of the pageant, professional rodeo, horsemanship, general knowledge and current events. You never know what a judge will ask so study, study, study.

HORSEMANSHIP

The purpose of this category is to select the young lady who rates the highest in:

1. Horsemanship: Control of mount and the way each situation that may occur is handled
2. Balance- ability to sit in the saddle
3. Position of hands, feet, and seat.
4. Mounting and dismounting

5. Presentation wave

6. The understanding and skill of the contestant will be judged and not the horse or equipment.

7. Each contestant will be interviewed on each of the following categories; knowledge of tack, horse science, professional rodeo history, rodeo terminology, explanation of standard events, championship standings, current issues of the pro rodeo circuit.

8. Showmanship - This is how well the contestant projects her personality to the audience from horseback.

The contestants will provide their own horse for the horsemanship portion. Horses will be all around type horses that know their leads when asked correctly. When choosing a horse for a queen competition please keep in mind it must be sound, know both leads and be able to stop with a reasonable amount of contact. Any horses that are deemed dangerous by Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Committee or the horsemanship judges will not be allowed to compete. Dangerous is defined as bucking, rearing, running off, or otherwise out of control.

Horsemanship patterns will be provided to the contestants. After the pattern contestant will walk to judges and they will ask contestant questions pertaining to horsemanship. Rail work may be requested at Judges option. After all girls have been judged on their patterns each contestant in order will run a presentation ride. When horsemanship begins, all contestants will be quarantined from friends and family. They will have no contact unless approved by the queen coordinator. No person other than the contestant may warm up their horse or you will be disqualified from horsemanship. There will be no coaching from the rail. If judges suspect coaching from the rail there may be points deducted. 10 points deducted for each violation.

SPORTSMANSHIP -The Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Pageant committee expects each contestant, parents, friends, and relatives to display the highest degree of sportsmanship during the pageant and following the coronation. Each contestant should be mindful that they are representing the Evanston Cowboy Days and the Sport of Professional Rodeo.

Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. Unsportsmanlike conduct could result in disqualification and affect further eligibility to compete,

Sportsmanship is conformance to the rules, spirit, and etiquette of sport. Being a "good sport" involves being a "good winner" as well as being a "good loser"

Etiquette is a code of behavior that influences expectations for social behavior according to contemporary conventional norms within a society, social class, or group. Rules of etiquette are usually unwritten, but aspects of etiquette have been codified from time to time. Rules of etiquette encompass most aspects of social interaction in any society, though the term itself is not commonly used. A rule of etiquette may reflect an underlying ethical code, or it may reflect a person's fashion or status.

Expectation Agreement

This expectation Agreement is between the Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Committee, hereinafter referred to as the "ECDR" and _____ a Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Princess contestant, competing for the honor of being selected as a Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Princess or attendant, hereinafter referred to as "PRINCESS". The purpose of the Expectation Agreement is to make both parents and CONTESTANTS are aware of their responsibilities in the event a contestant is selected as PRINCESS or a member of her court.

If I am selected as PRINCESS or a member of her court, I agree to abide by the following expectations during my reign.

1. I will send thank you notes to all sponsors, judges, and appropriate ECDR officials within 7 days of the date I am crowned.
2. I will promote the Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo and the sport of rodeo in a positive manner at all times.
3. I will always demonstrate honesty, good sportsmanship and good behavior & etiquette. This includes but is not limited to use of Social Media such as Facebook, Twitter, MySpace, etc.
4. I may be chaperoned at my events by either parent(s), Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo adult member (adult is 21 years age or older) or approved chaperone.
5. I will treat animals humanely.
6. I will have a horse and appropriate tack suitable for use in the Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Grand Entries, Parades, and other special events.
7. I will wear my banner, crown and proper western attire whenever I make public appearances as PRINCESS, this includes the entire rodeo which you visit.
8. I will represent the Evanston Cowboy Days at local functions and fundraisers.
9. I will keep in close contact with my coordinator and will notify them if I am unable to meet any of my obligations as PRINCESS or if any problems arise.
10. All appearances must be approved by Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Coordinator.
11. I will work with all other members of the royalty together as a team.
12. I will represent the Evanston Cowboy Days in a positive and lady-like manner. No Drinking, Smoking or Drugs.
13. No cell phones will be carried and used at official Evanston Cowboy Days events.
14. I will be able to promote and be available from September 1, 2017 through September 4, 2017, as requested.
15. I will help find prizes and help out at the next Princess coronation unless competing.
16. I will help with putting on a queen clinic sometime during my reign.
17. I will take good care of any Evanston Cowboy Days things given for the duration of my reign; this includes but is not limited to the traveling tiara, chinks, leather banner, and serapes.
18. If I am unable to fulfill my duties as PRINCESS or if I do not adhere to this Expectation Agreement, I agree to forfeit my title and return all Evanston Cowboy Days property and all prizes I receive.
19. I will represent Evanston Cowboy Days at least 6 other rodeos, 2 other parades, and at least 3 other activities not including Cowboy Days throughout the year. If I attend another rodeo during and Evanston Rodeo Series Rodeo I will make sure there is an Evanston Cowboy Days representative there.

20, I do realize as Princess my duties will be limited to what the Queen Committee deems appropriate for my age. I will not chase cattle out of the arena and if the queen coordinator tells me something I should not be doing I will abide by her decision.

21. If I need help with expenses I will either find another sponsor or will have a fund raiser, either to be approved by the Queen Coordinator.

22. I will be available to work with the queen coordinator to help represent Evanston Cowboy Days throughout the year.

23. I will work with the Queens and HAVE fun.

24. If I do not follow any of these expectations, the first will be a warning and a talk with the President of Cowboy Days and the Queen Coordinator, the second will be a special meeting with the entire Cowboy Days Committee and the third will result in having my crown pulled and all of my queen prizes returned including belt buckle, crown and sash.

25. All complaints by contestant and/or parents will be submitted in writing along with a check in the amount of $50 to the Evanston Cowboy Days Committee, Box 458, Evanston WY 82931, within 2 days of the contest.

Contestant's Signature Date

As parents or guardians of the above princess contestant, I have read over all the rules and regulations herein and agree to abide with them and to make sure that my daughter also abides with the rules and works with the queen coordinator and Queen. I will make this a positive experience and will abide with the judge's decision. Any breakage of these rules could result in my daughter relinquishing her crown or if she did not get in and there is bad mouthing about the contest she may never be able to try out again at the discretion of the Cowboy Days Committee.
