Residence: Contestant must be a female resident of the state of Wyoming or a bordering state.

Marital Status: Contestant must never have been married nor be engaged to be married nor will publicly be engaged to be married during the course of her reign, and have no children. Contestant must not now nor ever have been pregnant, nor share living arrangements of the opposite sex in an intimate relationship.

Good Character: Contestant must be of good moral character and have never committed or been involved in an act of moral turpitude. Bullying, intimidation, and/or harassment to others will not be tolerated. Contestant must not have engaged in any act past or present, which if made public, would be reasonably likely to cause harm or damage to contestant's reputation or to the goodwill and reputation of the pageant. Public notices of questionable moral character, indecent exposure, and/or inappropriate social media posts may result in ineligibility or the termination of a title.

No Criminal Record: Contestant must not have been convicted of any crime or felony. A background check may be conducted. The pageant reserves the right to refuse any contestants application due to criminal records. If the contestant is refused entry there will be no appeal process. If infractions with the law occur during a titleholder's reign it may result in the termination of a title.

Substance Abuse: Contestant must not use any illegal or controlled substance (other than prescription medications in the manner prescribed.) Contestant must not abuse alcohol or other dangerous substances. Underage alcohol use will not be tolerated. Public notices of such violations may result in ineligibility or the termination of a title.

Titleholder and Contractual Obligations: Contestant must not be under contractual obligation which would interfere with her ability to participate in this contest or interfere with her ability to perform as a title holder. Contestant must not be a title holder of any other pageant or be a contestant in any other pageant while holding a title with this pageant. If a contestant has been removed from a previous PRCA royalty court she is ineligible to compete. (An appeal letter may be submitted to the Evanston Cowboy Days Executive Officers regarding removal from a previous PRCA royalty.) There is no limit to the number of times an individual can compete as long as all eligibility requirements are met. Should a contestant win she can only hold her title for one year unless she is under 18. If under 18 she can then wait one year and try out again.

Attire and Conduct: All titleholders shall dress in appropriate western apparel for all functions in which they are representing their title. Apparel includes hat, boots, belt, and banner. Shirts/jackets must be at least $\frac{3}{4}$ length sleeve. Long sleeves must be worn for all area appearances. Skirts/dresses must be no less than 3 inches above the knee. Jeans with holes are not acceptable. Bright unnatural colored hair is not acceptable. Visible body piercings (other than the ear) and tattoos are not acceptable. Appropriate personal conduct is essential. This includes no swearing, bullying, smoking, drinking, chewing, drugs, or anything of such nature.

Rules and Regulations

1. Contestant must submit the following documents in order to compete in the contest. All documents must be properly completed and signed by both the parent/guardian and the contest.

Action of this type will be reported to the Evanston Cowboy Days Executive Board and Queen Coordinator and disqualification of that contest could result in all prizes being seized.
13. After the coronation, each contestant, including the new royalty is expected to remain at the event location and demonstrate good behavior and sportsmanship until dismissed by the Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Committee. Poor sportsmanship will not

- be tolerated and could result in contestant being disqualified and may affect future eligibility in the Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Pageant.
14. The leather banner, chinks/chaps, and horse banner are permanent property of the Evanston Cowboy Days Committee. The queen is responsible to keep these items in good shape. At the end of the reign the horse banner needs to be dry cleaned and all items need to be returned. Attendants will be responsible to keep their horse banner in good shape, dry cleaned, and returned at the end of their reign.
 15. The Evanston Cowboy Days Queen can only hold her title for one year unless she is under 18. If under 18 she can then wait one year and try out again.
 16. If the Evanston Cowboy Days queen wishes to try out for Miss Rodeo Wyoming she must wait until 2020 to do so. The Evanston Cowboy Days Committee will cover the following expenses.
 - a. Dues to Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association
 - b. Miss Rodeo Wyoming contest fees
 - c. Transportation costs to and from Douglas, Wyoming (only)
 17. If royalty wish to attend other rodeos during their rein a formal written request can be submitted to the Evanston Cowboy Day Committee. Upon approval from committee funds may be available for travel or other expenses.
 18. Any violations of these rules and regulation may disqualify a contestant from participation in this contest.
 19. These rules and regulations are designed for contestants' safety and to keep the contest running properly and in a professional manner. If any grievances arise, either during or after the contest the matter should be brought to the attention of the Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Coordinator.
 20. All complaints by contestants and/or parents need to be submitted in writing along with a check in the amount of $50 to the Evanston Cowboy Days Committee, Box 458 Evanston, WY 82931 within 2 days of the contents.

Mission Statement

The pageant competition selects individuals to serve as official spokespersons/ambassadors who will promote rodeo, our agricultural industry, and our western traditions. A primary outcome of the process is to provide learning opportunities for young women who compete in the pageant and to groom young women of today for the leadership positions of tomorrow.

Expectation Agreement

This expectation agreement is between the Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Committee and _____, an Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Queen contestant, competing for the honor of being selected as the Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Queen or attendant. The purpose of the expectation agreement is to make both the parents and contestants aware of their responsibilities in the event the contestant is selected as Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Queen or a member of her court.

If I am selected as Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Queen or a member of her court, I agree to abide by the following expectations during my reign:

1. I will write thank you notes to all sponsors and appropriate Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Committee officials. I will turn in the thank you notes in addressed and stamped envelopes to the queen coordinator within 7 days of the date I am crowned.
2. I will promote Evanston Cowboy Days and the sport of rodeo in a positive manner at all times.
3. I will ALWAYS demonstrate good sportsmanship, behavior, etiquette, and honesty. This includes but is not limited to use of social media such as Facebook, Twitter, etc.
4. I will be chaperoned at events by either of my parents, Evanston Cowboy Days Committee Member (21 years old or older), or an approved chaperone.
5. I will treat all horses and animals humanely.
6. I will have a horse and appropriate tack suitable for use in all of my appearances and the Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo, Grand Entries, Parades, and other special events.
7. I will wear my banner, crown, and proper western attire (outlines in eligibility) wherever I make public appearances. I will stay in attire through the entire event I am attending.
8. I will represent the Evanston Cowboy Days at local functions and fundraisers.
9. I will keep in close contact with my queen coordinator to represent Evanston Cowboy Days throughout the year and will notify them if I am unable to meet any of my obligations as Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Queen or a member of her court.
10. I will approve all appearances with the Evanston Cowboy Days Queen Coordinator.
11. I will work with all other members of the royalty as a team. We will coordinate and represent Evanston Cowboy Days throughout the whole year.
12. I will only use my cell phone for emergencies or communication regarding Evanston Cowboy Days during official Cowboy Days events.
13. I will be able to promote and be available from August 30, 2019 through September 2, 2019, as requested.
14. I will attend the 2020 Evanston Cowboy Days Rodeo Queen pageant to give away my title of Miss Evanston Cowboy Days Queen. (Attendants not required to attend.)
15. I will represent Evanston Cowboy Days throughout the year by attending at least 2 other parades, 3 other activities not including Evanston Cowboy Days, and 6 other rodeos including 3 from the following list: Woodruff Homecoming, Oakley 4th of July Celebration, Cokeville Rodeo, Rich County Fair, Wyoming State Fair, Summit County Fair, Evanston Rodeo Series, Laramie Jubilee Days, or Fremont County Fair.

If I am unable to fulfill my duties or if I do not adhere to this expectations agreement, I agree to forfeit my title and return all Evanston Cowboy Days property and all prizes received.
